SUBJECT: Fatality Review Committee Decision on Chargeability

Case No.: 2013-M-10- [REDACTED] Deceased: [REDACTED]

Date of Incident: January 24, 2013 Date of Death: January 24, 2013

Operator: Nestle Purina PetCare Company Mine: King William

Decision: Not chargeable

In a unanimous decision, the Fatality Review Committee has determined that the death of [REDACTED] should not be charged to the mining industry. [REDACTED] a 46 year old supply planner, was found slumped back in her chair by a co-worker. She was unresponsive. CPR was administered until paramedics arrived on-site. She was transported to a local hospital where she was pronounced dead.

The death certificate indicated that the cause of death was a suspected intracranial hemorrhage. MSHA's investigation did not identify any associated physical or environmental hazards.

Based on the findings of the death certificate and the MSHA investigation, the committee members concluded that [REDACTED] died due to natural causes and that her death should not be charged to the mining industry.
